

 Interest in a new "Journal of Indigenous Psychologies" - thoughts by Linda Waimarie Nikora by Louise S. [2015, Sep 05]

Hi Louise,

For sometime now I have wondered why nobody has initiated a journal of/for indigenous psychology. I do stand to be corrected if there actually is a journal. I just can't seem to find it. I am aware of the Indonesian Journal of Indigenous Psychology, but not of any others.

I wonder if there is any interest amongst task force members in such a development, or of course, reasons to the contrary.

My apologies in advance if this has already been discussed.

Kind Regards,

Professor Linda Waimarie Nikora
Director, Maori & Psychology Research Unit, University of Waikato, PB3105,
Hamilton, NZ
<http://www.waikato.ac.nz/go/mpru>

 Comment by Louise Sundararajan by Louise S. [2015, Sep 05]

Dear Linda,

Very timely question. I have been asked by Palgrave Macmillan to be editor of a book series on IP. This book series may be one answer to your question. I welcome suggestions for developing this venue for the scholarly work in IP.

Thanks for the good question,
Louise

 Comment by Joan Koss by Louise S. [2015, Sep 05]

Linda Waimarie Nikora,

Many thanks for this excellent paper! The problems and status of Australian (indigenous) peoples are especially difficult!

Joan Koss

 Comment by Joseph Trimbl by Louise S. [2015, Sep 05]

Good evening Louise. There is an indigenous journal in existence. Go to:
<http://digitalcommons.usu.edu/kicijr/>

However I'm not certain this is what Linda is referring to but then again I can't certain.

In spirit,
—Joseph

Joseph E. Trimble, PhD

Distinguished University Professor
Professor of Psychology
Western Washington University
516 High Street
Bellingham, WA 98225
Office – 360.650.3058
Fax – 360.650.7305
Email – joseph.trimble@wwu.edu
Web – <http://pandora.cii.wwu.edu/trimble/index.htm>

 Comment by Gayle Morse by Louise S. [2015, Sep 05]

We have the online journal the Journal of Indigenous Research
<http://digitalcommons.usu.edu/kicjir/>

Short articles

Check it out

 Comment by K. K. Hwang by Louise S. [2015, Sep 05]

Dear Linda:

We have a journal called Research in Chinese Indigenous Psychology.
Unfortunately, it is published in Chinese with English abstract.

Best,

K. K. Hwang

 Comment by Kiran Kumar Salagame by Louise S. [2015, Sep 05]

Hello Linda and Louise,

In India, Andhra University at Vishakapatnam has been publishing a journal with the title Journal of Indian Psychology for the last few decades. The primary aim of this journal is to encourage publication of materials related to indigenous Indian perspectives on psychology. Hope this information may be of relevance.

Regards

Kiran

 Comment by Akbar Dr. Waseem Alladin by Louise S. [2015, Sep 05]

Dear Louise and Linda

What a timely and excellent idea! I would be keen to be part of a Journal of Indigenous Psychology: An International Journal of Theory, Research and Practice (excuse my bias!)

I am confident there will be sufficient interest and clearly lot of expertise amongst our task force members.

Kind regards

Akbar

Dr Waseem Alladin

Founding Editor in Chief, Counselling Psychology Quarterly: An International Journal of Theory Research and Practice/ Routledge