

Call for Papers

The 6th International Indigenous Social Science Conference & The 7th International Indigenous Counseling Psychology Conference, 3th November (Friday) – 5th November (Sunday), 2023 in Taiwan

Theme: New Horizons of Indigenous Social Sciences: From Asia to the World

Please see: <https://conferencealerts.com/show-event?id=253726>

Subject:

The theme of this conference is "New Horizons of Indigenous Social Sciences: From Asia to the World". The research objectives of social science indigenization include the localization of foreign learning, cultural integration and cultural inheritance. We will invite the scholars who are concerned about the localization of social sciences at home and abroad to participate in this conference. The academic fields include sociology and social work, psychology, philosophy, education, management, general education, humanities and literature, medical education, gender studies, cultural studies, communication, political science, economics, information education, arts, science education, history, law, area studies and geography, anthropology and ethnic studies, linguistics, and other transnational domain disciplines. We'd like to stimulate the innovative ideas for academic research and promotion of indigenous social sciences and local counseling psychology through interdisciplinary dialogue and research, to extend Taiwan's energy and influence in promoting local research in Asia to the world, and to seek New Horizons of Indigenous Social Sciences and Indigenous counseling psychology research. All theoretical development, empirical research and practical papers on the theme of social science localization are welcomed to submit.

The discussion of the research is expected to include:

1. The approach to the development of Indigenous Social Science under the Containing Culture
2. Localization theory and construction of practices of interdisciplinary disciplines
3. Deepening the theoretical construction and research on localization of social sciences
4. Promoting the review and prospect of Localization of Chinese Social Sciences
5. Theory and practices construction of Chinese Indigenous Counseling Psychology
6. Current situation and prospect of Localization of Social Sciences in Asia
7. Theory and practices construction of Indigenous Counseling Psychology in Asia

8. International connections and prospects of Asia's experience in promoting Localization of Social Sciences

9. Effects and reflections of promotion of Indigenous Social Science's academic research and practice

10. Linking and Promoting New Visions of the International Indigenous Social Science Academic Community

We welcome scholars and experts in the following fields to participate:

- Sociology and Social Work Psychology Philosophy
- Education Management General Education
- Humanities and Letters Medical Education Gender Studies
- Cultural Studies Communication Studies Political Science
- Economics Information Education Arts
- Science Education History Law
- Area Studies and Geography Anthropology and Ethnic Studies Linguistics
- Other Interdisciplinary Disciplines

Methods:

The conference is seeking original papers on the topic that have not been presented or published in other conference, online or otherwise.

We accept 2 forms of report, oral research presentation and research poster. Contributors are requested to indicate the form of paper report they want to participate in when submitting the abstract. The organizer will adjust the theme of the session and the number of papers included according to the conference agenda.

The session of oral research presentation in total is 90 minutes, allowing the discussion and interaction between the reporters and the participants, 15 minutes for each reporter. Projectors and screens will be provided during oral research presentation sessions, and other equipment must be prepared by the reporters themselves if needed.

Presentation time of research poster will be at noon on November 4 and November 5, 2023.

Abstract review:

Publish forms of this conference include oral presentation in Chinese and English and publication of research poster. The abstract should include research purpose, research methods, research results, discussion and recommendations. 600-1000 words for Chinese abstract, written in traditional Chinese; 400-600 words for English abstract, 3-5 keywords each in Chinese and English. Please indicate the format of the paper.

Submission date:

Please submit abstracts in Chinese and English before June 15, 2023.

Submission method:

1. Electronic abstract file (name of the file: title_outline_full name of the author), please refer to the format of the abstract.
2. Please send the Word file DOC of the abstract and the author's basic information sheet to the conference's exclusive email address: cissaforyou@gmail.com. The subject of the email should be "2023 Research on Localization of Social Sciences" Research paper abstract submission_full name of the author".

Results of the review:

We expect to inform the contributors the results of the abstract review on July 5, 2023 (Wednesday).

Kwang-Kuo Hwang (Honorary Chairman/Honorary Professor, Department of Psychology, National Taiwan University/ Honorary President of Chinese Indigenous Social Science Association/ Honorary President of World Indigenous Counseling Psychology Alliance)

Yung-Jong Shiah (Chairman/President of Chinese Indigenous Social Science Association, Professor, Graduate Institute of Counseling Psychology and Rehabilitation Counseling, National Kaohsiung Normal University/ Emeritus Professor, Hui Lan College, National Dong Hwa University,)

Chih-Hung Wang (Executive Chairman/Professor, Department of Guidance and Counseling and Director of Center for Indigenous Counseling Psychology, National Changhua University of Education)

Yung-Jong Shiah, Ph.D, Professor, Graduate Institute of Counseling Psychology and Rehabilitation Counseling; Director, Student Counseling Center, National Kaohsiung Normal University, Taiwan. Emeritus Professor, Hui Lan College, National Dong Hwa University, Taiwan; President, Chinese Indigenous Social Science Association;
<https://scholar.google.com/citations?user=oaoDdkIAAAAJ&hl=en>
https://www.researchgate.net/profile/Yung-Jong_Shiah