

SECOND ANNUAL MENTAL HEALTH CONFERENCE

FROM THE MARGINS TO MAINSTREAM:
A SPOTLIGHT ON THE INTERSECTION OF MENTAL ILLNESS AND MINORITY IDENTITIES
TEACHERS COLLEGE | COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

REGISTRATION: STIGMACONFERENCETC.WEEBLY.COM

TED-INSPIRED TALKS SPEAKER HIGHLIGHT DR. JUDY KURIANSKY | 3.30PM, COWIN AUDITORIUM "MENTAL HEALTH & WELLBEING: ADVOCACY AND PROGRAMS IMPLEMENTING THE GLOBAL AGENDA"

Dr. Judy Kuriansky is a world-renowned clinical psychologist, humanitarian, author of many books, musician, mental health advocate, Fellow of APA, on the adjunct faculty in the Clinical Psychology Department at Columbia University Teachers College. An award-winning journalist, she is a pioneer of radio call-in advice talk & internet advice.

At the United Nations, she is the main representative of the International Association of Applied Psychology and the World Council for Psychotherapy, Past President of the Psychology Coalition of NGOs accredited at the UN; and led their successful advocacy for including Mental Health and Well-being in the Global Agenda.

Organized by: A.W.A.R.E (Advocates for Well-being, Awareness, Reform, and Equality)

Supported by: Student Development & Activities, Office of Student Affairs & Department of Counseling & Clinical Psychology

To request disability-related accommodations contact OASID at oasid@tc.edu, (212) 678-3689, (212) 678-3853; TTY, (646) 755-3144 video phone, as early as possible.

