

NFSI-19- Free Webinar on 'Why study Indic Perspective in Higher Education'

From: shilpa_pandit

Greetings from Chinmaya University!

It gives us joy to share that Chinmaya Vishwavidyapeeth, Veliyanad, Kochi, Kerala is organizing an International Conference on the integration of Indic knowledge Traditions in Health, Education and Well-being from 16 -18 December, 2019. More details can be accessed from the website.

Link as : <https://nfsicvv.ac.in>

In the preparation to the International Conference, we are organising a free webinar on 9th October, 2019 from 5:30 pm. The webinar is titled 'Why Study the Indic Worldview in Higher Education in India'. Register fast and access the webinar.

Please find the webinar link for October 9

<http://bit.ly/Webinar-October-9>

The final call and pre-conference workshop brochures are enclosed for your reference. Several subject experts are expected to present their ideas and thoughts, with two pre-conference workshops on research methods by Prof. Kumar RaviPriya (IIT-Kanpur) and Prof. Dharm Bhawuk(University of Hawaii). Participants are required to book their seats fast. Research students and scholars will certainly benefit from this.

Detailed brochures for the conference and the pre-conference workshop are enclosed.

We are also happy to share that discounts are being offered on group participation as some institutes were participating in groups. We would go on to say that, even if you are not presenting a paper, its worthwhile to listen to the senior psychologists in India on the themes in the panel discussions. Please come and listen, discuss and go back enriched!

Warm regards,

Shilpa Pandit, PhD

Email:panditshilpa@hotmail.com

Phone: 9962269944

<http://www.dreampathfoundation.com/about-us.html>