THE 3RD SOUTHEAST ASIAN INDIGENOUS PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE

(SEAIP 2023)

"Building Thriving Communities from an Indigenous Psychology Perspective: Research, Services and Policy Making"

Keynote Speaker

PROF. PAT DUDGEON

University of Western Australia (UWA)

"Practices and Research of Decolonial Psychology in the Study of Indigenous Resilience"

Plenary Speaker

DR. ROBERT LEMELSON

University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA)

"Researching Trauma from the Psycho-anthropological Approach"

Plenary Speaker

DR. RYAN CHUA

Monash University, Malaysia (MUM)

"Researching Resilience from the Indigenous Psychology Approach"

Scientific Programs Highlight

Cluster Discussion & Networking Session

(Limited only to selected participants based on their CV in an online format)

Keynote and Plenary Speakers Session

(Open to all participants in a hybrid format)

Research Presentation Session

(Open to all participants whose abstracts has been accepted and other participants as an audience in an online format)

NOVEMBER 25TH-26TH, 2023

HYBRID:

- FACULTY OF MEDICINE, UNIVERSITAS HASANUDDIN, INDONESIA
- ZOOM CLOUD MEETINGS

VISIT US:

https://www.seaip2023.com

CONTACT US:

contact@seaip2023.com

REGISTER:

https://www.seaip2023.com/register

THE 3RD SOUTHEAST ASIAN INDIGENOUS PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE

(SEAIP 2023)

CALL FOR ABSTRACT

Topic Areas:

1. Meanings of resilience or thriving from an indigenous perspective
2. Cultural strengths and indigenous resources for coping with adversities in Southeast Asian societies
3. Methodological challenges and innovation for studying resilience in Southeast Asian communities
4. Local knowledge or wisdom on personal and communal strengths
5. Cultural adaptations of (western) mental health interventions for developing resilience or thriving among the Southeast Asian communities
6. Policy or programs that promote thriving or resilience of minority groups in this region
7. Indigenous practices (e.g. rituals, games, dramas, sports) that promote communal resilience

Abstract Guidelines:

1. Abstracts must be submitted in English.
2. Abstracts should not exceed 500 words excluding the title, author(s)'s name(s) and keyword(s).
3. The topic of the abstract has to be highly relevant to the Seven Topic Areas listed above or on the website.
4. Both empirical papers (either quantitative or qualitative) and theoretical papers are welcome.
5. If your abstract is accepted, you will be invited to give a 10-minutes oral presentation, followed by 5 minutes of Q&A.
6. If you are willing to publish your full paper, the organizing committee will facilitate the publication of papers in partner journals.

Important Dates

Submission Opening
August 1st, 2023

Submission Deadline
September 30th, 2023

Selected Abstract Notification
October 25th, 2023

Presentation Sessions
November 26th, 2023

Conference Day
November 25th-26th, 2023

REGISTER:

https://www.seaip2023.com/abstract-submission

CLUSTER NETWORKING SESSION

THE 3RD SOUTHEAST ASIAN INDIGENOUS PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE

Cluster Topics:

1. Research collaboration on indigenous psychology in Southeast Asian
2. Education or training collaboration on indigenous psychology in Southeast Asian
3. Translating indigenous psychology research to community engagement and practices

— Limited to 50 Pax —

Participants in this session will be screened based on Curriculum Vitae with the following criteria:

1. Research interest in Southeast Asian regions or populations.
2. Are currently/recently active in Southeast Asian regions research.
3. Interest in learning more about indigenous Psychology, to be a part of the indigenous psychology movement and community.
4. Degree of fluency in English (this conference will be conducted mainly in English).

REGISTER:

https://bit.ly/REGCLUSTER_SEAIP2023

IMPORTANT DATES

Registration Opening
August 1st, 2023

Registration Deadline
September 30th, 2023

Selected Member Notification
October 25th, 2023

Conference Day
November 25th-26th, 2023